U.S. CRACKS DOWN ON SOVIET SPY RINGS

Eisenhower to Fight Outlaw of U.S. Communists

President Believes Action Would Drive Party Underground

By United Press
President Eisenhower today was reported ready to throw his weight against congressional efforts to outlaw the Communist party.
Administration sources said the chief executive believes such a move would boomerang by turning Communists into martyrs and driving them further underground.
Congressional leaders admitted that Mr. Eisenhower can determine the fate of the Senate-passed bill to make active membership in the Communist party punishable by large fines and imprisonment.
Should the President decide to include it in his bag of anti-subversive bills, the measure undoubtedly would win swift House approval. Should he oppose it, GOP leaders can toss it into a pigeonhole.
The President was not expected to make a public statement against the measure. Rather, White House sources said, his opposition will be felt in inner party councils, probably at his weekly meeting Monday with GOP congressional leaders.

House Republican Leader Charles A. Halleck (R-Ind.) said the lower chamber would take up one of the anti-subversive bills Monday, but added that he did not know if it would be the bill to outlaw the Communist party.

Other congressional news:
ATOMIC: Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland (Calif.) said Congress would not have to delay adjournment further although the Senate sent the administration's atomic bill back to a conference committee. The Senate wants a provision re-written to insure the sharing of patented atomic discoveries.

FARM: Senate House conferees were expected to reach a final compromise on the farm bill, giving the President almost everything he requested. Chief obstacles to a settlement were House attempts to boost dairy price supports and let wheat farmers vote on a two-price system. However, House conferees were said to be willing to give up the wheat proposal in exchange for some Senate concessions.

At issue as the conferees met for possibly their last session, were these major points:

1. Dairy price supports. The Senate, following administration advice, voted not to disturb the present support level, 75 per cent of parity. The House proposed a raise to 80 per cent.
2. Details of a wool price support program. The House voted for a two-year program. The Senate, acting in accord with administration desires, approved a permanent program. The plan is to pay producers, out of tariff collections, the difference between market price and support level.
3. Changes in national forest grazing regulations. The Senate adopted a section which would give grazing permit holders the right to build dams and other improvements on the public lands and to retain "proprietary" interest in these improvements. The House bill had no comparable section.
4. A House proposal to let wheat growers vote next year on whether they want a "two-price" support program in 1956. Under such a program, wheat raisers would be guaranteed 100 per cent of parity for that portion of the crop—about 200 million bushels—needed for domestic human consumption. On the remainder, they would receive no supports at all.

The way was apparently clear, after the conferees met Friday to explore these points, for a trade in which the Senate would yield on the grazing section and the House would abandon its two-price wheat proposal.

SALINE COUNTY OIL REPORT: Test Aux Vases, Paint Creek at Taylor Well

By BOB SKEELS

(Note—This information is based on scouting earlier in the week and does not reflect subsequent developments.)

There are six new first reports this week, one completed well, and two wildcats drilling to bring the total operations in Saline County to 19.

In 22-8s-6e, on the south edge of Raleigh, the Slaughter Producing company of Evansville has started another rank wildcat, its No. 1 Evelyn Wesley, SE NW NW, 22-8s-6e, drilling today below 1600 with Sun Drilling's rotary rig of Olney.

One mile northwest of Harrisburg, the Dean and Halliwell and Southern Development Company have cable tools over their No. 1 Oscar Taylor, 8-9s-6e, more than six miles from other production. They fractured the Aux Vases sand 2616-24 early this week, and it swabbed oil at the rate of 18 barrels per hour but soon settled to two barrels. This was mostly load oil coming back after the fracture. According to the fracture log, the Aux Vases should produce around 20 barrels a day settled production. They set a temporary plug and are now testing the Paint Creek sand 2454-72 after perforating and fracturing. The Benoist won't be tested.

Stake New Locations
Four miles northwest of Eldorado, Breuer and Robison have completed their No. 2 Woolard Heirs as a shut in gas well in the Cypress sand 2535-46 after perforating the Aux Vases 2902-08 which tested very little oil.
They have staked locations in that area to drill the No. 3 Woolard Heirs and the No. 3 Woolard Heirs and others community, both to start in the near future.
One half mile east of this production, E. H. Morris of Crossville has moved in his rotary to drill a wildcat test on the Edwin Lewis lease in the NW NW SW, of 36-7s-6e, and was digging today below 2600 feet. Bill Graef of Mt. Carmel is the geologist picking the samples.

Estimate 3,000 Attend Annual Meeting at Eldorado

Entertainment was the theme of the closing session of the annual Southeastern Illinois Electric Co-operative meeting held at Eldorado Thursday evening and Friday morning and afternoon.

Climax of the Friday afternoon session was the beauty contest, with Miss Romelle Scott, Cave-in-Rock, selected as Miss SEIEC of 1954. Miss Scott will represent this district at the annual state-wide electric co-op meeting.

There were twenty-one contestants, with Miss Virginia Elliott, McLeansboro, winning second place and Miss Edna T. McCue, Equality, taking third place honors.

Other events on the Friday afternoon program included General Electric House of Magic show, entertainment by the three winners of the talent contest, singing by Lucky Lefty and organ music by John LaMothe. There were also many door prizes awarded. Jim Bolen, WSL-TV, was master of ceremonies of the program.

Begin Livestock Judging at Illinois Fair

75,000 Persons In Attendance On Opening Day

SPRINGFIELD (UP)—The first livestock judging and harness racing were featured today on the "Labor Day" program at the Illinois State Fair.

The second day of the fair began under overcast skies but attendance was expected to match the 75,000 estimated for the opening day. The fair will continue through Aug. 22.

State Labor Director Roy F. Cummins was host to labor leaders at a downtown reception this morning. Gov. William G. Stratton scheduled a tour of labor exhibits at the fair and invited labor leaders to a reception at the executive mansion this afternoon.

The livestock judging was confined to the junior department. Judging in other classes will get under way Monday. Eggs, poultry and rabbit judging and a two-day gladiolus show with $1,250 in prizes began today.

Full Program on Tap

Other events today included a matinee and evening society horse show, an outdoor square dance in the Fairgrounds' main thoroughfare, and the WLS National Barn Dance and the Les Vogues of 1954.

A mobile unit of the U. S. Air Force's only television squadron, set up in the military area near the poultry and produce buildings, was getting a big play.

The junior livestock competition waxed hot with all 844 available stalls filled with entrants. About 1,700 entrants are livestock exhibitors, some with outside stall space.

The governor Friday crowned Jack Brislin, 15, and Diana Blackford, 10, entrants of the Peoria Journal, as State Fair king and queen.

Mother and Four Children Killed in Auto-Train Crash

COAL CITY, Ill. (UP)—A mother and four children were killed Friday night when an automobile collided with a Santa Fe freight train.

Ten persons were riding in the car, driven by Earle Shane, 21, Central City.
The victims were Mrs. Clara Mae Barnes, 39, Central City; her 4-year-old son Howard Jr., and three daughters, Wilma, Sonja and Irene who were 9, 10 and 11 years old.

Another son, James, 13, was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital in Joliet, suffering cuts and bruises. Shane's 18-year-old wife, Doris, and their infant son, Jimmy, were also hospitalized at St. Joseph's. It was believed that the boy received a concussion or skull fracture.

Mrs. Barnes' husband, Howard Sr., who was also in the car, and Shane apparently escaped with minor injuries.

Red Army Moves Into Position Facing Formosa

TAIPEI, Formosa (UP)—An estimated 100,000 Red Chinese infantrymen and 12,000 paratroopers have swung into position along the China Coast facing Formosa, it was reported today.

Chinatone news agency, which claims close connections with Nationalist Chinese intelligence, said the troops bore the name of "Formosa Liberation Army" and received intensive training by Communist instructors.

The Chinatone report followed a declaration earlier in the day by Communist Chinese Premier Chou En-Lai that the Peiping regime is determined to "liberate" Formosa.

"The government of the Peoples Republic of China once again declare that Taiwan (Formosa) is inviolably Chinese territory, that its occupation by the United States absolutely cannot be tolerated, and that it is equally intolerable to have it placed under U. N. trusteeship," Chou said.

Social Security Bill Faces Only Minor Hurdles

WASHINGTON (UP)—The administration's Social Security program today faced only a few minor hurdles to final congressional approval. Efforts to write a broader bill crumbled Friday night in the rush for adjournment.

The Senate passed its version of the bill to expand coverage and liberalize retirement benefits and sent it to a Senate-House conference committee to iron out differences with the House-approved measure.

A small bloc of senators, who had planned to fight for even greater benefits, abandoned serious attempts to amend the measure in any major respects when the upper chamber shouted approval after five hours of debate.

Chief differences between the Senate and House bills involved the extension of old age insurance coverage. The Senate bill would put nearly 7,000,000 additional persons under the program, compared with more than 9,000,000 in the House version.

The administration asked for added coverage of 10,500,000 persons.

There was no difference over the new benefit scale.

Benefit increases will go to about 6,500,000 persons on the rolls as well as to those retiring at 65 in the future. For those already retired, the increases will range from $5 to $13.50 a month and average about $6.

For a retired single person, the present minimum benefit of $25 will go to $30—the lowest benefit for anyone covered. Under present law, the maximum monthly benefit for a single person is $85. For a married couple, both over 65, it is $127.50. The bill hikes the new top figures to $108.50 and $162.80 respectively.

For persons earning over $3,600 a year, the measure also means a payroll tax increase up to $12 a year beginning next Jan. 1. The 2 per cent tax on employer and employee will be paid on the first $4,200 of annual earnings, instead of the present $3,600.

Arthur E. Abney To Head State Aeronautics Dep't

It is reliably learned here today that Gov. William G. Stratton will announce the appointment of Arthur E. Abney, 33, Harco, to be director of the State department of Aeronautics.

He will replace James K. McLaughlin, Sullivan, who is resigning to return to the private practice of law. Both men are attorneys and Abney is currently assistant director of the department.

Abney is married and lives in Springfield. He graduated from Southern Illinois university at Carbondale and studied law at Lincoln Law school in Springfield.

It is anticipated by Gov. Stratton that the Department of Aeronautics will be eliminated as a code department at the next session of the General Assembly and its functions vested in a division or commission either under the Department of Public Works or under the Illinois Commerce commission which has certain regulatory powers over aviation.

Stratton's idea of eliminating the department as a code department has no reflection on its direction, but its functions are overlapped by federal regulations and it is not necessary to continue as a state department.
Abney is the son of Mrs. Ada Abney of Harco.

Information is Supplied by Ex-Russian Spy

Asylum is Granted To Agent Held Secretly 7 Months

WASHINGTON (UP)—American authorities, acting on information supplied by former Russian spy Yuri A. Rastvorov, have secretly cracked down on Soviet agents in the United States, it was learned today.

Highly reliable government sources said the 33-year-old Russian gave U. S. and Allied authorities information of "extreme value" to the free world during six months of questioning. He was considered the most valuable prize to fall to the West since Igor Gouzenko broke with the Russians and exposed a Soviet atomic spy network in the United States and Canada.

Rastvorov, it was understood, disclosed the details of far-flung Communist espionage rings in the Far East and Japan and highly important "operations in this country."

Informed sources said security reasons prevent the government from revealing at this time the actions taken against the Red agents. But the Japanese government confirmed that "several Japanese nationals" have confessed to serving Rastvorov's MVD spy ring. It denied that any high officials were involved but it has apparently launched an intensive investigation of Communist infiltration in key Japanese agencies.

Rastvorov, who quit his job as a lieutenant colonel in the Soviet Secret Police (MVD), told a hastily called news conference Friday night that "medium high" Japanese officials have given intelligence reports to Red agents.

In one of the most dramatic moments of the East-West cold war, Rastvorov appeared under heavy guard Friday night at the State Department. It was his first public appearance since he slipped away from his job as "second secretary of the Soviet mission" in Japan on the night of Jan. 24.

Reporters summoned without knowing what was in store, watched Rastvorov stride into the department's auditorium to tell them he had broken with Moscow in order "to live like a decent human being." Tanned and generally at ease, he said life under Communism "made me decide to leave forever a fatherland which the Communists had turned into a concentration camp."

The State and Justice departments, who have been keeping Rastvorov's whereabouts a secret during the last seven months, promptly announced that the curly haired, square shouldered Russian had asked and received asylum in the United States. It was the first official admission he had been in American hands.

Experts familiar with Rastvorov's case said he had been kept hidden until enough time had passed for him to give the greatest possible information on Soviet spy operations.

Although the State Department denied there was speculation that the timing of Rastvorov's appearance may have been made to counteract the bad propaganda effects of the defection of Dr. Otto John, former West German security chief, who went over to the Reds recently.

Since action has been taken again, Soviet agents, informants said Moscow undoubtedly knew the tip-off had originated with Rastvorov.

Lyle Griffith Dies at Eldorado

Lyle Griffith, 56, resident of Eldorado, died yesterday morning at 9:20 in the Pearce hospital. He was a miner, last working at Dering.

He is survived by a half sister, Mrs. Grace Ingram, Eldorado; a half brother, Max Griffith, Detroit, Mich., and an aunt, Miss Edith Gray of Chicago.

The funeral will be Monday at 9 a. m. at St. Mary's Catholic church. Rev. W. E. Hanagan will officiate, and burial will be in St. Mary's cemetery.

The body will lie in state at the Eldorado funeral home.

Heat, Drought, Slash 100 Million Bushels from Illinois Corn Crop Prospects

SPRINGFIELD (UP)—Heat and drought have slashed Illinois corn prospects by an amount equal to total production of half of the 48 states, it was reported today.

The state-federal Crop Reporting Service said the July weather trimmed more than 100 million bushels from the expected Illinois crop—roughly equal to the output of 24 less-important corn states.

Illinois corn production was estimated at 400,365,000 bushels as of Aug. 1. This compared with a July 1 forecast of 507,129,000 bushels, and 1953 output of 500,472,000 bushels.

Yield of corn shrank from 57 bushels per acre July 1 to 45 bushels Aug. 1.

"The serious drought area took in most of the southern half of the state except the bottom tip and portions of the Ohio River Valley on the lower east side," the report said.

"Soybean Crop Cut
"The upper fringe of the drought area extended a little farther north on the west side of the state than on the east side," it said.

The crop bulletin said the soybean outlook had been cut "about in proportion with that reported for corn." Soybeans weren't damaged as much as corn but a larger part of the state's beans are grown in the drought area, it explained. A bean crop of 81 million bushels was predicted.

Wheat production for Illinois was estimated at 44,346,000 bushels, the same as July 1. The 1953 crop was 56,781,000 bushels.

A weekly report from the state-federal crop reporting service said rain and cooler weather have helped Illinois crops in the past week, particularly in the southern counties.

Hope for Improvement
The crop bulletin said the change in weather had "suspended" the "rapid deterioration" of southern Illinois crops.

"There is no possibility of recovery of losses already sustained by much of the corn in that area."

SIU Country Column

By Albert Meyer
Until fruit is mature it will get larger the longer it hangs on the tree, thus increasing the yield. Peaches and apples are specific examples.

Peach harvest time in southern Illinois always brings up discussions on when to pick the fruit. Some growers like to pick their peaches early, hoping to cash in on a stronger early market. Others leave the fruit on the tree longer as horticulturists advise. They point out that the keeping qualities of peaches picked at the "firm ripe" stage are relatively unaffected, and that the fruit harvested at this stage is larger (giving greater yields per tree) and has better color, flavor, and quality than peaches that are picked more green.

Cold soaking pine fence posts with penta results in a post that will last from 15 to 25 years. Before treating with penta the wood must be well-dried and free of bark.

Brushing on preservatives will add only one to three years to the life of wood, so some other method of treatment is desirable. Wood that is to be used in damp locations or in contact with soil should be treated with wood preservatives or be of a highly durable species to increase its resistance to decay. Seasoned wood is less subject to insect and fungus attacks than unseasoned wood.

Do not let trees and brush grow on the dam of your farm pond. They eventually weaken the water barrier. Weed and brush-killing chemicals are available to help make the cleaning job easier.

It bears repeating that many gallons of gasoline may be saved on the farm this summer by the simple procedure of providing shade for the gasoline storage tank if it is above ground, and by properly adjusting the tractor carburetor.

Automatic water systems may be arranged to operate even on slow-yielding wells.

If an area on the farm around the farmstead some day will need a shade tree, a little foresight and protection for a good species of seedling that may start in the right place will pay dividends in a sturdy, healthy tree for later years.

Usually trees are transplanted where they are wanted. However, by planning ahead and saving good seedlings where they start they need not be subjected to the shock of transplanting. Fence rows and such protected places as beds of shrubs, iris, and other herbaceous perennial flowers often are good starting places for seedlings. Several may be permitted to start and then be thinned out to the most desirable saplings later. If none of the variety wanted are self-seeded in the desired area, ripened seed from desirable trees may be gathered and planted.

Web Worm In Alfalfa

By L. B. Kimmel
Since the late summer rainfall many farmers are thinking about pasture and hay seedling for next year's livestock program. At least fifty good farmers in Saline county are testing soil and asking questions about seeding alfalfa to date.

There are many hazards to raising alfalfa, such as winter killing, lack of moisture for germination, lack of lime, phosphate and potash, even boron deficiency in some old alfalfa fields; and then there are insects. The worst alfalfa insect at this time of the year is the web worm.

The web worm is a small green worm that hatches from eggs laid on the young alfalfa plant. This happens usually at night and also the moth is small and common enough to not be noticed by the untrained observer. The eggs hatch into worms in a short time. The worms start to eat their weight about 10 times per day. This makes a complete kill of the young plant especially when thousands of them are in the alfalfa field. The worms spin a small silken web around the plant to prevent falling on the ground and easily move on this from one plant to another.

Fields are eaten up in less than a week and some farmers would swear the seed never germinated as the stand of seedlings turn brown and vanish over night. Now what can a farmer do:

1. Check the field every day and look for the web worm and other insects.

2. If you find them, spray the field or patches now. Not tomorrow or next week.

3. Deildrin is the material to use. DDT probably will kill them sprayed at rate of 1 1/2 lbs. per acre of 50 per cent wettable DDT. Deildrin is something new, the latest. Its effect gives a quick kill.

4. If you expect to get a stand of alfalfa put on enough seed. Inoculate the seed. Roll the seed in with corrugated roller.

5. Don't take things for granted; watch the field every day.

6. If you have problems come in and discuss them with the farm adviser or call by phone, Harrisburg 1441.

SIT TIGHT!
Hog raisers, don't get panicky. The government's latest pig crop report makes the picture look rosier than most growers had expected, says Capper's Farmer. Here are two reasons: (1) when compared with the number of consumers, the 1954 spring crop is the third smallest in 17 years, and (2) it was distributed more evenly over the farrowing season than any other crop of record.

Plant Winter Barley on Diverted Wheat Acreage

Winter barley is one of the better fall-seeded small grains you can plant on acres that you hold out of winter wheat this fall.

However, because barley is somewhat winter-tender it is adapted only to the southern half of the state, say University of Illinois crops specialists J. C. Hackleman and W. O. Scott.

The crop is best adapted to the area south of U. S. Highway 40 across southern Illinois. But it will probably survive most winters in the area north to a line across the state from Urbana to Quincy.

Winterkilling is, however, definitely a hazard in the south-central part of the state. If you plant the crop, you should understand that it may occasionally fail to survive the winter in this area, say the agronomists.

Winter barley will do best when planted on soils that are moderately well drained and well supplied with plant food. It is an excellent feed grain, but it has some disadvantages as a cash grain. Many elevators are not equipped to handle it unless you can supply it in car-load quantities. It is also susceptible to damage from chinch bugs and scab.

Five varieties are recommended for Illinois growers: Kearney, Reno, Kentucky No. 1, Kenbar, and Missouri B-400. Kenbar and Missouri B-400 are more susceptible to winter injury than the other three and should therefore be seeded only in the extreme southern part of the state.

He is well acquainted with local contractors who have solid reputations for honest workmanship. He can help you select a plan for monthly payments—there are many sound ones, including the liberal provisions of FHA insured Title I loans.

Your lumber dealer, too, sells quality materials. Among these materials are Balsam-Wool Sealed Insulation and Nu-Wood Insulation Board products. Your lumber dealer is proud of the wonderful record these two national brands have established in thousands upon thousands of homes.

And we, in turn, are proud that Balsam-Wool® and Nu-Wood® are sold by LUMBER DEALERS ONLY! Wood Conversion Company, St. Paul 1, Minnesota.

Arbitrators Grant Rail Engineers 5-Cent Hour Boost

NEW YORK (U.P.)—An arbitration board has turned down a 22.5 per cent wage increase sought by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers but granted a five-cent-an-hour increase.

The six-man arbitration board ruled Friday that the BLE should receive the same wage increase granted last year to the nation's other railroad workers.

The 22.5 per cent pay boost sought by the 80,000 Engineers would have amounted to an average increase of more than $125 per month. Present basic wage rates vary from $14.42 to $19.80 a day.

Guy L. Brown, grand chief engineer of the BLE, denounced the award as "the most flagrant violation of moral justice I have ever witnessed in more than 40 years of railroading."

The dispute between the union and the nation's railroads began last October when the union demanded a 30 per cent wage increase. Later the union cut its demands to 22.5 per cent.

When the railroads offered five cents an hour the dispute was taken before the National Mediation Board.

Dodgers Beat Giants, 3-2; Braves Move Closer with 5-2 Victory Over the Cubs

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

The lyrics of the World War II song expressed the position of the Brooklyn Dodgers in the National League pennant race today as Manager Walt Alton's crippled forces headed "in on a wing and a prayer."

The "wing," of course, belongs to Carl Erskine, whose sparkling six-hitter enabled the Dodgers to beat the New York Giants, 3-2, Friday night and move within 2½ games of first place. And the prayer is that Carl Furillo finally has recovered the batting eye that made him the league's leading hitter in 1953.

Erskine struck out nine batters including Willie Mays in an eighth-inning clutch situation, to score his 15th victory of the season and his third over the Giants. Erskine, heading for his second straight 20-victory campaign, yielded both Giant runs in the seventh inning when Don Mueller and Monte Irvin sandwiched doubles around a single by Mays.

Furillo Hits Winner
Those three hits put the Giants in front, 2-1, but the Dodgers quickly went ahead for keeps when Gil Hodges opened the last of the seventh with a single and trotted home when Furillo hit reliever Marv Grissom's second pitch into the left field stands for a game-winning blow.

The Chicago White Sox won a thriller from the Detroit Tigers, 1 to 0, in 16 innings, and the St. Louis Cardinals won a slugfest from the Cincinnati Redlegs, 10-8, in the ninth inning.

Furillo won the batting title with 344 last season but languished around .250 for most of this year. His game-winning homer helped boost his current mark to .285.

The Milwaukee Braves scored their 18th victory in 20 games when Del Crandall hit a three-run homer in the ninth inning to produce a 5-2 win over the Chicago Cubs. Relief pitcher Dave Jolly, who pitched the ninth, received credit for his sixth triumph as the Braves moved to within 5½ games of the Giants.

Ludians Keep Lead
The Cleveland Indians routed the Baltimore Orioles, 9-4, to hold their 2½-game first-place American League lead over the New York Yankees, who beat the Boston Red Sox, 8-2. Bob Feller won his 10th game of this year and the 25th of his career behind a 14-hit attack that included Dave Fope's first major league homer. Pinch-hitter Enos Slaughter struck the big blow for the Yankees — a three-run triple in the sixth inning as Whitey Ford won his 12th game.

Southpaw Jack Harshman bested Al Aber in the year's gaudiest pitching duel to give the Chicago White Sox a 16-inning, 1-0 decision over the Detroit Tigers, and the Philadelphia A's snapped an eight-game losing streak with a 3-2 triumph over the Washington Senators in the other American League games.

The Pittsburgh Pirates swept a double-header from the Philadelphia Phillies 9-5 and 5-0, behind Bob Friend and Jake Thies, while the St. Louis Cardinals won a battle of home runs to outslug the Cincinnati Redlegs, 10-8, in the other National League games.

Jack Harshman won the longest game of the American League season for the White Sox. The two teams battled 15 scoreless innings and with one out in the last of the 16th, Minnie Minoso tripled home Nellie Fox, on first after Chico Carrasquel, who had singled was forced at second on Fox's punt.

It was Harshman's 10th victory of the year against six losses. Al Aber, the losing Detroit hurler, went all the way.

In a night game at Cincinnati, Cardinals' outfielder Wally Moon hit a sinking liner to center in the ninth with the bases full, two out and the score tied at 8-8. Gus Bell dived for the ball and apparently trapped it.

The third base umpire, Babe Pinelli, called it a fair catch but the second base umpire, Bill Stewart, said it was "no catch" and two runs scored. The Redlegs argued heatedly about the play, but to no avail.

Brooks Lawrence was the winning pitcher, getting his 10th victory of the season, and Jackie Colium lost his second game against six wins for the Redlegs.

Nash to Play Mt. Carmel Moose Here Tomorrow

The Nash baseball club will be seeking its 11th win of the season Sunday when it plays host to the Mt. Carmel Moose at the town park diamond.

From all reports, Mt. Carmel has a strong club. Brown or Tate will twirl with Stelzer doing the receiving for the visitors. Parker or J. Nolen is slated for mound duty with Wallace and Roark with Bledig doing the catching.

There will be a preliminary game starting at 12 noon involving two Kiwanis league teams. The Nash-Mt. Carmel clash will commence at 2:30.

Other starters for Nash will be Shewmake, Fulkerson, Karnes and Ziegler in the infield with Sisky, K. Nolen and Harrison in the outfield. All players are requested to be present not later than 1:45 p. m.

The Sierra Nevada range is the highest mountain range in the United States.

Stock car racing will return to the Saline County Speedway tonight following a two weeks' absence.

Two weeks ago the races were called off due to a muddy track and last week the Saline County fair was in session, making racing impossible.

Studebaker Plans To Cut Prices; Seeks Defense Contract

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — The Studebaker Corp., whose workers have agreed to a pay cut, has plans to slice its 1955 auto prices by about $100 and hopes of landing a big defense contract.

Board Chairman Paul G. Hoffman Friday disclosed the firm's plans for getting out of the red and into a strong competitive position.

Faced with recurring layoffs and a threat that the plant would be shut down entirely, 1,000 United Auto Workers agreed to take a 10 to 15 per cent cut in pay.

Hoffman said Studebaker plans to turn out 12,500 vehicles a month. He said the company will introduce a more powerful engine and a flashier model by October.

At the same time he said the company has been dickering with the Pentagon for a defense contract and may soon obtain "a big volume" contract for guided missiles.

Hefner Hurls No-Hitter in Kiwanis L. Play

Good pitching featured play in the Kiwanis league Friday as Zeb Hefner pitched a no-hitter as Karnes, beat the Pickford Tigers. Skippy Ramsey hurled a two-hitter for Turner's cafe against NYC, and Jim Molinaro pitched a two-hitter in a losing cause as the Mitchell Shells defeated the Athletic House. In another game Walker's Cleaners were credited with a 9-0 victory over the Deuces.

Hefner faced only 16 batters as his team shut out Pickford's, 10-0. Stanley, Denny and Hefner led Karnes at bat with two hits each. Pickford was the losing pitcher.

The Shell-Athletic House game was one of the best of the season, and was not decided until the seventh inning when the Shells won, 1-0. Molinaro had allowed only one hit until the seventh when Dalton walked and Wayman Hefner followed with a line double into center to win the game. Jim Howton was the winner, allowing five hits.

Turner's Cafe slaughtered NYC 3-1. Jerry Jahn led both teams in hitting with four. Turner's scored 10 in the first, five in the second, one in the third, seven in the fourth and 11 in the fifth. NYC scored its lone tally in the first.

Kitty league all-stars will play the preliminary to the Nash-Mt. Carmel game Sunday. The Kiwanis game will begin at 12 sharp.

All-Stars are as follows: Stars — Roberson, Abney, Maszaros, Boyett, Feazel, Baldwin, Proffitt, Seten, Goins, Biggs, Griffith, Simpson, R. Owen and O'Neal.

Detroit Lions Rout College All-Stars, 31-6

Untried Rookie Calls Plays with Layne on Sidelines

CHICAGO — Detroit's Lions indicated today they might use a double quarterback system to challenge for a third straight National Football league title.

There was no de-emphasis in the Lions' offense Friday night as their signal calling star, Bobby Layne, laid on the sidelines for the full 60 minutes to let an untied rookie, Tom Dublinski, call the plays in a 31-6 rout of the 1954 College All Stars.

It was Detroit's second straight win in the 21st annual game of this series and it was the second time any club has been able to win consecutive years. Only the Chicago Bears in 1941 and 1942 previously were victorious in order.

Lions Coasted

But the Lions appeared to coast most of the way in piling to the 13th pro victory in the annual clash. The All Stars have won six games and tied two.

Detroit put the game away in the opening 10 minutes scoring 17 points as Lew Carpenter plunged two yards for a score. Dan Walker plunged four, and Jim Martin booted a 28-yard field goal.

Thereafter, the All Stars tried to catch up and couldn't. Their touchdown was on a four-yard cutback by Notre Dame's Johnny Lattner after Dublinski fumbled on his own four.

And just to put the game on ice, Carpenter scored again on a one-yard plunge after a march from Lions territory sparked by Dublinski, while Jim Doran stole the ball from Neil Norden and ran 34 yards for a TD.

The Lions had a huge edge statistically too, outgaining the collegians, 250 to 52 yards rushing and 111 to 82 yards passing.

Dublinski nearly outpitched the entire collegiate squad, completing 10 of 15 throws for 103 yards, while the collegians with four passers, hit on only 11 of 26 attempts.

Zeke Bratkowski of Georgia was the top collegiate tosser with eight completions in 14 tries for 63 yards, but Stanford's Bobby Garret could not connect on any of six efforts.

The Lions, who had professed concern about having to play collegiate rules and the one-planet system, were given no trouble. Coach Buddy Parker used only 25 men, but they had control of the match throughout against the 49 players whom Head Coach Jim Tatum of the All Stars put into action.

Zirconium is the new metal with almost unique advantages for building atomic reactors, but it is so temperamental that its metallurgy is a nightmare for chemical engineers.

Rickey On Way Out as Pirate Manager as Crosby Refuses To Go Along with Plans

NEW YORK — Branch Rickey, who pioneered baseball's farm system and broke its unwritten color line, is being eased out of the picture with the Pittsburgh Pirates because of crooner Bing Crosby's refusal to support his highly expensive "rebuilding plan."

Crosby, who owns 20 per cent of the Pirates, produced the front-office crisis which will push Rickey into the position of an "advisor and chief scout" next year with repeated denials of additional cash with which the 72-year old Branch hoped to make the Pirates a pennant contender.

Branch Rickey Jr. revealed Friday night that his father would step down as general manager of the Pirates in November, 1955. Rickey Sr. signed a 10-year contract with the Pirates in 1951 but called for him to be general manager for only five years.

Pirates Wane Under Rickey
Under Rickey, the Pirates have finished last in the National league three times and seventh once. The club is reported to have lost $800,000 in 1952 and reported a $325,000 deficit last year. In addition, attendance at Forbes Field has continued this year at a downward spiral.

It was learned that Crosby had refused to pour additional funds into Rickey's expensive farm operation at least twice since 1952 although the other Pittsburgh stockholders were willing to go along.

Crosby, it was also learned, developed a coolness toward Rickey when Branch refused to take him into his confidence. Rickey, an informed source disclosed, seemed to regard Crosby as "an outsider from the movie colony."

Unhappy About Bell
Crosby also was known to be "extremely unhappy" when Rickey sold outfielder Gus Bell to the Cincinnati Redlegs on Oct. 14, 1952. Bell, one of Crosby's favorite players, has since developed into a star.

Rickey Jr. said in Pittsburgh that his father "intends to act in an advisory capacity and will concentrate on the player angle — trades, teaching and training and scouting."

There was no indication as to who might succeed Rickey Jr. as general manager of the club. Rickey's salary is estimated at $100,000 a year.

Rickey Jr. emphasized that his father was eager to get away from the tedious daily routine of operating the far-flung organization.

"Dad wants to get away from the 12-hours-a-day routine that he works now," Rickey Jr. said. "He wants to take a little ease and get away from the business end of the ball club."

No Word From Rickey Sr.
Rickey Sr. was unavailable for comment because he is en route home from a fishing trip in Canada.

Before going to Pittsburgh, Rickey had earned a reputation as one of baseball's authentic geniuses. He originated the farm system for the St. Louis Cardinals, building them into a perennial challenger for the NL pennant, and also built the current Dodgers, who have

Not So Long Now

Very soon leaves turn brown, sleep with blankets, watch Bull Dogs play, try to stay warm instead of cool. Warm or cool very effective are the foodstuffs of Nick.

—TALK OF THE NATION—

THE GREATEST WEAPON AGAINST COMMUNISM

A victim of an Iron Curtain Country escaped and found refuge in the United States.

In America he worked where he liked. He went to and from town, or crossed state lines as he wished. Never was he stopped and asked for "papers." Never were his belongings searched or confiscated. Never, when he went to bed at night, was he haunted by the fear of being torn ruthlessly from home and loved ones to be sent away forever.

Yet these things are happening right now in his native country.

"Abroad, there is terror in many hearts," said this refugee, "that you Americans cannot understand because you have never experienced it. . . . and God forbid you ever shall."

"This above all you must remember: The greatest weapon you have against Communism is your Bible and your Religion."

In other words, American Citizens, "Go to the church of your choice this Sunday—and every Sunday. Keep Christianity thriving. It's your mightiest weapon against the dark devices of Communism."

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

'Self-Discipline For Growth'

Matt. 16:24-25; I Cor. 9:24-27; Heb. 12:1-4

GOLDEN TEXT: "Then said Jesus unto his disciples, if any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me." (Matt. 16:24)

INTRODUCTION: Self-discipline is needed today perhaps as never before. Young people are faced with temptations in a way that no generation of young people have ever before been confronted.

In school they are taught English, mathematics, psychology and philosophy. In everyday life they are faced with sex, drinking and cheating. Too many times they are neither taught in school nor in their homes how to meet these practical problems.

Right thinking mothers and dads are not nearly so concerned about world affairs, wars and economics, as they are about their children's moral condition. They listen at night for the family car to pull into the drive-way and wonder if son or daughter has been able to withstand temptation this night. Have they exercised self-discipline?

Every parent and every young person would do well to study thoroughly this Sunday School lesson and the scripture passages contained herein.

I SAVE YOUR LIFE BY LOSING IT (Matt. 16:24-25) Peter had just made a wonderful confession of faith in Christ. Jesus said that upon this kind of faith his church would be built. Then Peter became a stumbling block by asking Jesus to avoid the Cross. Jesus' answer to Peter gives to us an abiding principle of self-denial which brings successful living.

Notice that to "take up your cross" is not to do some simple good deed or task. To take up one's cross is to "deny self" and consecrate one's self to God. What ever you have to give up to do God's will is to deny yourself.

II TRAINING AND BODY CONTROL (I Cor. 9:24-27) A Christian must keep his body under control just the same as an athlete. Verse 24 tells us that we are running a race. It is a very real race, too. We run this race that we may obtain "an incorruptible crown." We are gaining victory over our enemies.

This calls for training and self-control. To run the race and win, one cannot indulge in sinful self-reliance nor deaden himself with alcoholic drink. People had better learn that alcohol is not a stimulant but a narcotic. It never helps any man or woman to "take a drink." It really makes them less able to control self.

III LIFE'S RACE (Hebrews 12:1-2) We are "compassed about by a great cloud of witnesses" as we run this race. The angels in heaven are watching us, and all of our loved ones gone on before are watching as we "run this race of life." Above all, Christ is watching.

He says, "let us lay aside every weight. A track man would never think of wearing a heavy coat and a pair of hip-boots as he runs the hundred yard dash. Every sinful habit that you have is a weight that keeps you from running life's race at it's best."

CONCLUSION (Hebrews 12:3-4) Jesus bore our sins on Calvary's Cross. No person ever suffered as did Jesus. He did it for you! We will never be called upon to suffer as did He. The time may come for you to suffer much. Just remember God's promise is that, "as thy days, so shall thy strength be."
